Case No.:

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Case No.: 1:25-cv-01949

Judge Thomas M. Durkin

COMPLAINT

Shenzhen Sunwell Industrial Co., Ltd. ("Plaintiff" or "Sunwell") brings this design patent infringement action under 35 U.S.C. § 100 et seq. against the Defendants identified by Merchant Name in the attached Schedule A (Exhibit 1) and allege as follows:

1. This is an action for design patent infringement by parties who are unlawfully exploiting Sunwell's patented invention, reputation, and goodwill by selling and/or offering unlicensed products, specifically swivel chairs ("Infringing Products").

2. Sunwell brings this case to stop and seek damages for widespread patent infringement by e-commerce sellers on several e-commerce platforms, including Amazon (the "Platform")—platforms on which infringers are notorious for selling infringing goods. Numerous sellers operating on the Platform are engaged in the unauthorized sale and/or offer for sale of products that infringe Sunwell's U.S. Patent No. D926,487 ("the '487 Patent"). The Defendants, using one or more of the seller aliases identified on Schedule A (the "Seller Aliases"), create e-commerce stores on the Platform to advertise, offer for sale, and sell the Infringing Products.

3. The rapid growth of e-commerce and e-commerce platforms has facilitated online trafficking in counterfeit and pirated goods. In 2021 alone, Customs and Border Protection seized over $3.3 billion in illegitimate goods. (2020 Intellectual Property Rights Seizure Statistics, Fiscal Year 2021, U.S. Customs and Border Protection.) The majority of the goods seized by CBP arrived from China and Hong Kong. (Combating Trafficking in Counterfeit and Pirated Goods, US Dept. of Homeland Security's Office of Strategy, Policy, and Plans (Jan. 24, 2020).) Infringers use e-commerce platforms to sell their infringing products to large numbers of potential consumers with near impunity. By setting up deceptive storefronts on e-commerce platforms such as the Platform here, the fraudulent sellers operate with an air of legitimacy and without any efficient or effective modes for intellectual rights holders to enforce their rights. Enforcing intellectual property rights is significantly complicated by e-commerce platforms' policies that permits sellers that have one or more storefronts closed for repeated IP infringement to operate additional stores.

4. Infringers are able to register their deceptive storefronts on e-commerce stores such as the Platform without providing accurate and genuine identifying information. (Alibaba, Amazon, and Counterfeiting in the Age of the Internet, 40 NW. J. Int'l L. & Bus. 157, 186 (2020).) Infringers are able to sign up for storefronts on the Platform, obscure their real identifies, and, when confronted with an enforcement attempt, avoid accountability and traceability by frequently changing names and addresses including opening new storefronts on the Platforms. (See Alibaba, Amazon, and Counterfeiting in the Age of the Internet, 40 NW. J. Int'l L. & Bus. 157, 186 (2020) and Combating Trafficking in Counterfeit and Pirated Goods, US Dept. of Homeland Security's Office of Strategy, Policy, and Plans (Jan. 24, 2020).) As a result, American consumers now face a significant risk of purchasing infringing products or pirated goods over the internet that they believe are authentic goods made or licensed by the actual patent holder.

5. As a result of the aforementioned unlawful infringement, Sunwell is compelled to file this action to protect its lawful patent rights and to safeguard consumers from being misled into purchasing the Infringing Products on the Platform. Sunwell has sustained and continues to suffer irreparable harm due to the infringement of its patent rights, which permits unauthorized parties to manufacture, use, sell, offer for sale, and import its patented design. Sunwell seeks injunctive relief as well as monetary damages resulting from Defendants' infringing activities.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This patent infringement action arises under the United States Patent Laws, Title 35 U.S.C. § 100 et seq., including 35 U.S.C. § 271. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

7. This Court has both specific and general personal jurisdiction over Defendants by virtue of their purposeful availment of the benefits of conducting business within the Northern District of Illinois. This is evidenced by their distribution, promotion, marketing, sale, and/or offering for sale of one or more products identified by the Amazon Standard Identification Numbers (ASINs) enumerated in the attached Schedule A. The Defendants have generated substantial revenue from these infringing activities by placing the Infringing Products into the stream of commerce, with the reasonable expectation that such goods will be purchased by consumers within the Northern District of Illinois. Each Defendant operates one or more interactive commercial e-commerce stores that are accessible to Illinois residents, allowing them to purchase the Infringing Products directly. Furthermore, Defendants have specifically targeted the Illinois market by being prepared to ship their infringing goods to customers located in Illinois. Each Defendant is engaged in tortious conduct within the State of Illinois, is participating in interstate commerce, and has caused Sunwell significant harm within Illinois as a result of their unlawful actions.

THE PARTIES

Plaintiff Sunwell

8. Sunwell is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of China. Its principal place of business is at the United States. Sunwell does business in this District through online marketplace such as Amazon.

9. Sunwell is a leading manufacturer specializing in high-quality outdoor furniture. The company designs, produces, and sells a wide range of modern and stylish garden and patio furniture, catering to both the United States market and international markets. With a strong commitment to innovation and craftsmanship, Sunwell has built a reputation for offering durable, elegant, and comfortable outdoor furniture solutions.

Defendants

10. Upon information and belief, the Defendants are individuals or business entities who, either individually or jointly, own and/or operate one or more of the e-commerce stores under at least one of the Seller Aliases identified on Schedule A and/or other seller aliases not yet known to Sunwell, but which may become the subject of this action through amendment of this Complaint.

11. On information and belief, some or all of the Defendants are individuals or companies that reside in the People's Republic of China, are affiliated with entities based in the People's Republic of China or have strong ties to the People's Republic of China. Indeed, all packages of the Infringing Products indicate that they are made in China. Defendants have the capacity to be sued pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b).

12. Upon review of Defendants' storefronts associated with each Seller Alias and upon information and belief, it is likely that Defendants are interconnected in their infringing activities. As demonstrated by Exhibits 2 through 7, the products offered by Defendants are nearly or fully identical, particularly in relation to the '487 Patent, and, as noted above, the products are all made in China. By importing, marketing, promoting the use of, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale these products, each Defendant is committing infringement in a similar manner and with respect to the same product or trivial variations thereof.

FACTS

Sunwell and its Patent

13. Sunwell is a premier manufacturer specializing in high-quality outdoor furniture and holds numerous valid patents within this industry.

14. On August 3, 2021, the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office duly and legally issued and granted the '487 Patent, entitled "Swivel Chair." A true and correct copy of the '487 Patent is attached as Exhibit 8. The patent is valid and enforceable.

15. The swivel chairs produced by Sunwell, which are associated with the '487 Patent, exemplify superior quality and craftsmanship. As a result of Sunwell's substantial investments and efforts, its products, including but not limited to swivel chairs, have attained significant recognition, reputation, and goodwill, all of which are directly linked to Sunwell's exclusive rights. Any unauthorized use of the patented design infringes upon Sunwell's rights and undermines the value and integrity of its brand, thereby constituting clear instances of patent infringement.

Defendants' Unlawful Activities

16. Sunwell's reputation for making and selling high-quality furniture has resulted in widespread unauthorized use of the '487 Patent. To date, Sunwell has found many fully interactive, e-commerce stores offering products employed with the '487 Patent on online marketplace platforms, such as Amazon, including the e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases.

17. Without Sunwell's authorization, and upon information and belief, Defendants commenced the use of the '487 Patent in relation to their chair products following Sunwell's acquisition of protectable exclusive rights in said patent.

18. Sunwell's investigation of the Platform has led to the discovery that the Defendants have been offering various chair items on the Platforms infringing the '487 Patent. Upon investigation of Defendants' product listings for the Infringing Product, Sunwell confirmed that these products were made and sold without Sunwell's authorization. (Ex. 9, Declaration of Wei Li, at ¶ 6)

19. Online infringers are known to employ many countermeasures against enforcement by intellectual property holders. For example, infringers frequently operate multiple accounts to evade account shutdowns. In fact, there are many similarities amongst the various Defendants' storefronts identified in the attached Schedule A that suggest they are affiliated or part of the same infringing network. See Declaration of Wei Li at ¶ 7-9. Once online infringers learn of any efforts by patent owners to enforce their rights, online infringers will frequently shut down the online storefront being targeted only to immediately reemerge under a new name, identity, and location to resume their infringing operations. This turns enforcement efforts into an ineffective game of "Whack-A-Mole."

20. Additionally, online infringers are also known to maintain off-shore bank accounts and regularly move funds from their financial accounts to off-shore accounts outside the jurisdiction of this Court to try to avoid payment of any monetary judgment awarded by the Court.

21. The actions of Defendants are causing, and unless restrained, will continue to cause irreparable harm and immediate damage to Sunwell, jeopardizing its valuable reputation and goodwill with the consuming public, for which Sunwell has no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT ONE
Design Patent Infringement

22. Sunwell repeats and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

23. Defendants are engaged in the offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent resale or use the Infringing Products, which infringe upon the swivel chair design claimed in the '487 Patent. Exhibits 2 through 7 contain comprehensive charts that compare the '487 Patent to the Infringing Products. Those charts demonstrate how the Infringing Products identified in Schedule A infringe the '487 Patent literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents.

24. In violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(a), Defendants have infringed (literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents) and will continue to infringe one or more claims of the '487 Patent by selling, offering for sale, and/or importing into the United States the products identified in Schedule A.

25. In violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(b), Defendants have indirectly infringed and continue to indirectly infringe the '487 Patent by actively inducing others to use the products identified in Schedule A in an infringing manner, knowing such use would constitute infringement of the '487 Patent. Defendants' customers who use the products identified in Schedule A in accordance with Defendants' instructions infringe the '487 Patent, in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(a).

26. Defendants have infringed the Patent through the aforesaid acts and will continue to do so unless enjoined by this Court. Defendants' infringing conduct has caused Plaintiff to suffer irreparable harm resulting from the loss of its lawful patent rights to exclude others from making, using, selling, offering for sale, and importing the patented inventions. Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283.

27. The Defendants' conduct is causing immediate and irreparable harm and injury to Sunwell, and to its goodwill and reputation, and will continue to both damage Sunwell and confuse the public unless enjoined by this Court. Sunwell has no adequate remedy at law.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Sunwell seeks judgement against Defendants as follows:

1. Entry of an Order that Defendants, their affiliates, officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, confederates, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be temporarily, preliminarily, and permanently enjoined and restrained from:
 - a. making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use any of the products identified in the attached Schedule A, or mere colorable variations thereof, not authorized by Sunwell;
 - b. aiding, abetting, contributing to, or otherwise assisting anyone in infringing upon the '487 Patent; and

- c. effecting assignments or transfers, forming new entities or associations or utilizing any other device for the purpose of circumventing or otherwise avoiding the prohibitions set forth in Subparagraphs (a) and (b).
2. Entry of an Order that, upon Sunwell's request, those with notice of the injunction, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as eBay, AliExpress, Alibaba, Amazon, Walmart, Wish.com, Etsy, Temu, and DHgate (collectively, the "Third Party Providers") shall disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defendants in connection with the sale of goods using that infringe the '487 Patent;
3. An award of damages to Sunwell adequate to compensate them for Defendants' direct and/or indirect infringement of the '487 Patent, including under 35 U.S.C. §§ 284 and 289, and for any continuing or future infringement through the date such judgment is entered, including pre-judgment interest and post-judgment interest, costs, and expenses, as well as an accounting and award of damages against Defendants for all future infringing acts occurring after the date such judgment is entered;
4. Entry of judgment that Defendants' direct and/or indirect infringement of the '487 Patent has been willful and an award as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 284 for treble damages against Defendants for their willful direct and/or indirect infringement of the '487 Patent;
5. Entry of judgment as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 285 that this case is exceptional and an award granting Sunwell their reasonable attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs; and
6. Entry of judgment in favor of Sunwell granting any further or additional relief the Court deems just and proper.

DECLARATION OF WEI LI

I, Wei Li, declare and state as follows:

1. This declaration is based upon my personal knowledge of the facts stated herein or on the business records that were made at the time or in the regular course of business. If called as a witness, I could and would testify to the statements made herein.
2. I am CEO for Shenzhen Sunwell Industrial Co., Ltd ("Sunwell"). I am knowledgeable of or have access to business records concerning all information referenced herein, including, but not limited to Sunwell's products and patents. I make this declaration from matters within my own knowledge save where otherwise stated.
3. Sunwell is a leading manufacturer renowned for its high-quality outdoor furniture. The company specializes in designing, producing, and selling a diverse selection of contemporary and stylish garden and patio furniture, catering to both the United States market and international markets. With a deep commitment to innovation and craftsmanship, Sunwell has established a reputation for delivering durable, elegant, and comfortable outdoor furniture that enhances any outdoor space. Sunwell's team of skilled artisans and designers work tirelessly to create furniture that combines functionality with visual appeal, making outdoor living a luxurious experience.

4. In this field, Sunwell owns many patents, including but not limited to U.S. Patent No. D926,487 (“the ‘487 Patent”). These patents reflect the company's focus on cutting-edge designs and unique features that add value and convenience for users. Sunwell’s innovative solutions are crucial in differentiating the brand in a competitive market. With a commitment to customer satisfaction and a passion for outdoor living, Sunwell continues to redefine the standards of the outdoor furniture industry, making every outdoor space a stylish retreat.

5. The popularity of Sunwell's product, the swivel chair, which is protected by the '487 Patent, has led to significant infringement issues due to the sale and offering for sale of swivel chairs that utilize this patent (the “Infringing Products”). In recent years, Sunwell has identified numerous e-commerce stores offering the Infringing Products on various online marketplace platforms, including Amazon. This includes stores operating under the seller aliases listed in Schedule A of the Complaint (the “Seller Aliases”), which are selling the Infringing Products either individually or as part of a set with other furniture items.

6. I have assisted in investigating the online infringement of the ‘487 Patent and found many entities, including the Defendants using the Seller Aliases, to be selling the Infringing Products across many different e-commerce platforms. Upon review of each of the Seller Aliases’ product listings contained in the attached Exhibit 1, I determined that the Infringing Products were being offered for sale to residents of the United States, including Illinois residents. True and correct copies of screenshot printouts showing the active product listings of the e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases reviewed are attached as Exhibit 1.¹ It is important to note that none of the Defendants are authorized distributors or retailers of Sunwell products.

7. Although the Defendants operate under different Seller Aliases, many product listings and e-commerce stores display significant similarities. These include the high similarity of the appearance of the Infringing Products, the same manufacturing country for the infringing products, comparable pricing and quantities, and identical unique features of the infringing products. This suggests that the Seller Aliases may be managed by the same or interconnected parties.

8. For example, all infringing products use four screws that are fixed in very similar positions on the side.

Def. 1 - HILLGA

Def. 2 - ZZD

Def. 3 - kuurfurdo

Def. 4 - ViccoMK

Def. 5 - Retail Hunters USA

Def. 6 - SUNSITT Patio

9. The similarities among the Defendants are also evident in the load support at the bottom of the chairs. As shown below, many defendants utilize the same method and material (i.e., rattan) for their weight support systems.

Def. 1 - HILLGA 	Def. 3 - kuurfuordo
Def. 4 - ViccoMK 	Def. 6 - SUNSITT Patio

10. The Defendants' unauthorized use of the '487 Patent in connection with the manufacturing, offering for sale, or sale of the infringing products is causing confusion and will continue to confuse customers, thereby tarnishing Sunwell's market. This harm is irreparable. Monetary damages cannot adequately compensate Sunwell for the infringement, as they fail to address the damage to Sunwell's lost market share. Additionally, there is a risk that by the time Sunwell obtains a judgment against the defendants, they may have transferred their assets or funds to overseas accounts, placing them beyond the reach of a judgment creditor.
